DEMOCRATIC LEADERS

The County Executive Committee Will Meet Again June 2

Immediately after the adjournment of the county convention Saturday Judge Bullock, in a fit of absentmindedness, started for the door, when he was reminded that a duty yet remained for him to perform, namely, to call the new members of the democratic county executive committee, say "God bless you!" with the benediction of all retiring chairmen. He did this and then thanked them for the honor conferred on him in making him their chairman two years ago.

The following members were present:

N. M. Allred, Ocala; S. L. Friday, Reddick; E. F. Neal, Flemington; B. W. Haddock, Romeo; S. R. Pyles, Shady Grove; S. N. Dillard, Summerfield; E. L. Carney, Lake Weir; Jno. L. Graham, Grahamville; C. A. McCraney, Linadale; E. L. Wartmann, Citra; W. T. Forbes, Anthony; W. Allsop, Weirsdale, representing as proxy Aleck Wynne, Eastlake; D. C. Stanley, Belleview; W. J. Chambers, Orange Springs; W. E. Nix, Kendrick.

This being a majority of the committee, it organized by electing N. M. Allred chairman and W. W. Clyatt secretary.

There was considerable discussion about taking up the business of recommending a person for registration officer and fixing date of primaries, but as Mr. Wartmann said, that all interested might have a fair showing, he named Saturday, June 2, as the date of meeting. Only one candidate, Alfred Ayer, thought the time too far off. All the rest said it suited them.

The selection of Saturday was discussed, Wartmann saying it was a bad day for him, but most of the others, especially the purely rural members, insisted that Saturday was their best day. So the motion prevailed.

After recommending J. N. Shedd for justice of the peace of Belleview the committee adjourned.

Other members of the committee who were present at the convention, but could not remain, were M. S. Mosser, Cotton Plant; J. W. Reynolds, Moss Bluff; D. L. Morgan, Salt Springs; F. M. Townsend, Martin; G. J. Strozler, Blitchton; G. J. Proctor, Pedro; Dr. Jim G. Baskin, Dunnellon, and R. W. Holliday, Eureka. Precedents not represented were Nos. 6, 13, 14, 25, 26 and 28.

CURRY CAPTURED

A Notorious Moonshiner at Last in the Grip of the Law

Deputy Marshal Peacock, with a posse of deputies, including Dan Hunnicutt, George Smith and William Hutson, went out to Fairfield yesterday afternoon late, and about 9 o'clock at night went to Dick Curry's house to arrest that elderly individual on a charge of operating an illicit still.

When the posse hailed the house, a man's voice answered, then nothing more was heard of the man, but a woman came to the window, and when asked if Mr. Curry lived there, answered that Mr. Curry lived somewhere in Gulf Hammock and that the house was her property and that she was Mrs. Standley. The deputies parleyed with her for two hours before she finally opened the door, under threats of breaking it down. Mr. Peacock told the lady who he was and what he wanted and Mr. Hunnicutt had a good deal to say to her in his persuasive manner and the lady behind the blinds asked, "Who are you?"

"Oh, you never heard of me," said Mr. Hunnicutt. "Yes, I have; you are that man Stinkney," and the boys had a good laugh at "Mr. Stinkney" this morning when telling him of the fun he missed, for Mr. Stinkney usually accompanies Mr. Peacock on business of this kind. Curry was very tractable when he was finally secured. He was brought to Ocala and is confined in the county jail, where he will remain until the witnesses can be secured and the preliminary trial held.

Dick Curry was the owner and operator of the big still captured by Messrs. Peacock and Stinkney several weeks ago.
